Antigua, June 4, 1747.

WHEREAS I have observed in the Maryland Gazette, of the 3d of March last, sent to me from Philadelphia to this Island, an advertisement signed Thomas Clark, Osborn Sprigg, and Joseph Belt, junior, declaring that I had a bond in my possession, dated 23d December 1743, and executed by them to Sutcliffe and Bower, for the payment of 800l. Sterling; and that the said bond is fully paid and discharged, and ought to be surrender'd up, as by a Receipt, which they have in their possession; but that I have refused to give it up, and they are apprehensive that I may assign the bond to some other person.

There are therefore to inform all manner of persons that might have heard of this Affair, that the said C. S. and B. are indebted to me, upon the just ballance of Accounts, about the sum of 470 l. sterling. They therefore take this method, in publishing that advertisement, to endeavour to prejudice the minds of people against me, as they have always done, by other low and dirty insinuations they knowing that I have large sums of money due to me in the province of Maryland, as well from sundry other persons, as themselves, which I am oblig'd generally to sue for. And also to inform, that I am not that bond in my possession, but have left it in the hands of my attorneys, Philip Thomas, Esq; and Sons, to be made no other use of than to oblige them to a settlement, and payment of their account due to me, which they have, to my said attorneys, before my coming away from Maryland, refused to do for reasons which I hope they (Messieurs Thomas) will assign in the public papers, if need be, to convince the world of the great injustice that these three ungrateful men have always endeavoured to do me, (tho' I think, I have a right to sue for as much of that bond, as the amount of account due to me) And further, that at my coming away from Maryland, Clark, Sprigg, and Belt, got John Hepburn, Esq; to endeavour to get that bond from me, by arguments which they furnish'd that gentleman with; upon which I made an offer to Mr. Hepburn, that if they, C. S. and B. or either of them, would go with me to Philadelphia, to which place I was then going, or empower a person properly to do it for them, I would leave the whole of our accounts to be arbitrated by merchants who were indifferent to us, and to the affairs between us, thought judges of accounts, as that could not be done in Maryland, all of the gentlemen that I had the honour of being known to, being at one time or other concerned in the same affairs. And I hereby assure the gentlemen of Maryland, that for no other reason I refused to have it arbitrated in Maryland; for I make no doubt but there are men of integrity in all countries. And I hereby also declare, that if C. S. and B. will still leave it to indifferent merchants that are in Philadelphia, that my attorneys have full power to do it; and that I would rather end it this way, than to continue a law-suit. I also offer'd Mr. Hepburn to put that Bond into his hands, to be delivered by him to C. S. and B. upon their entering into bonds of arbitration at Philadelphia.

ROBERT SUTCLIFFE.
